

By: Brendan Price

GREELEY, CO -

The Bears are welcoming interested players to tryouts on September 4th and 5th at the Ice Haus. New players that want to tryout for the team will need to attend a pre-tryout and pay a $50 fee to tryout.

The initial meeting will be held on Thursday, August 29th, 2019 in the Champions Room in the Butler-Hancock gymnasium on the University of Northern Colorado campus. In addition, new and returning players will need to register for the team using Do It Sports Easy. This meeting is mandatory for all players interested in going to tryouts the following week.

Both days of tryouts will be held at the Greeley Ice Haus. Tryouts will begin on Wednesday, September 4th at 6:30 PM and the second session will be Thursday, September 5th at 9:15 PM. The two tryout dates will feature a mix of drills and scrimmage action for players to showcase their skills for the Bears coaching staff.

The two tryout sessions will be at the Greeley Ice Haus, the home of the Bears, and are open to the public for viewing. No admission fee will be assessed.