GREELEY, CO -

The Bears will have 23 of their 33 games available on streaming platforms this season, including in-state road games for the first time in the program's history.

All of the Bears' home games will be carried through Black Dog Enterprises, with whom the Bears negotiated a three-year contract extension during the offseason. The Bears will play eight Friday night home games, two Saturday night home games, one Sunday afternoon and one Monday afternoon game at the Ice Haus. There will also be additional pregame coverage for Cancer Awareness Night on October 25th versus Colorado State, Military Appreciation Night on November 9th versus the Air Force Academy, and Senior Night on January 17th versus the University of Oregon.

Additionally, the Bears will be broadcasting five select road games at Metro State University, University of Denver, and the University of Colorado. This is the first time in the program's history that the Bears broadcast team will travel for road games.

Lastly, the Bears will have five tournament games streamed on other platforms. The rematch between UNC and last year's #1 team, the University of Mary, will be carried on BEK Sports and will be broadcast during the team's North Dakota trip. Additionally, all four games of the Beehive Classic will be streamed by, with more details to be announced later.

Both of last season's broadcasters, Brendan Price and Ben Shumate, will be returning for their second season behind the mic for Bears hockey.

The full broadcast schedule is on the following page. All times listed are in Mountain Standard Time.
